

Kwang Lim

Vancouver Managing Partner

T: 604.891.5144 / E: limk@bennettjones.com

Vancouver

EDUCATION

University of British Columbia, BSc, 2002

Queen's University, JD, 2005

University of California, Los Angeles,
LLM, 2011

BAR ADMISSIONS

Alberta, 2006

British Columbia, 2009

Kwang Lim, Managing Partner of Bennett Jones' Vancouver office, provides practical and strategic advice to domestic and international clients on complex corporate finance and M&A transactions. Entrepreneurs, start-ups, scale-ups, public companies and investors across various industry sectors benefit from Kwang's assistance throughout business growth cycles and his facilitation of opportunities.

He has a strong track record of handling significant acquisition transactions. Clients say Kwang "is an incredibly responsive and practical lawyer with an exceptional dedication to client service."

Chambers Canada

Kwang is highly engaged in Vancouver's business and legal communities and is an adjunct professor at the University of British Columbia's law school where he teaches the M&A law course.

In 2018, Kwang was named a Lexpert Rising Star, as one of Canada's leading lawyers under 40, and was named a Leading Lawyer to Watch – Corporate Finance & Securities by the Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory.

Kwang obtained his Master of Laws at University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) with a specialization in business law.

"Kwang and the Bennett Jones team continue to impress us with their speed, flexibility, and dedication. They go above and beyond to ensure our company's success. Bennett Jones is a true partner that has our back."

What Clients Say

