Darcy Moch is a senior tax partner and served as the co-head of the firm's tax department for close to 20 years. His practice is broad, focusing on domestic and international tax-planning, cross-border and domestic mergers and acquisitions, corporate reorganizations and financings transactions. Darcy has extensive experience in advising Canadian and foreign multi-national corporations, private equity funds, public corporations and privately owned businesses. He is also a leader in advising high net worth families on personal tax, succession, estate, trust, philanthropic and corporate planning matters, and on individual residency matters including departure and immigration tax planning.

"Darcy Moch is regarded by clients as 'honest, talented and at the top of his field.' Others note that he is someone who 'identifies key issues quickly and sets out possible resolutions on a timely basis.'"

Chambers Canada

"Darcy Moch KC has long-standing experience representing international brands on controversial issues arising from corporate reorganisations. He is valued by peers for his 'superb analytical skills.'"

Who's Who Legal
