Julia Pasieka has a general corporate commercial law practice with a focus on commercial transactions, public and private mergers and acquisitions and other corporate/commercial matters, including asset and share purchase transactions, amalgamations, and corporate reorganizations. She has assisted clients on the negotiation and drafting of energy contracts related to the development of oil & gas and renewable resources and has experience in corporate and securities law matters, including take-over bids, plans of arrangement, corporate governance and continuous disclosure requirements.

An active member of the Calgary community, Julia currently acts as a committee member for the Canadian Energy Law Foundation Fundamentals Seminar. She is also on the board of directors for The Shakespeare Company in Calgary and the board of directors for Volleyball Alberta.

Prior to joining Bennett Jones as an associate, Julia summered and articulated with the firm.
